

We would prefer to contact businesses we want to deal with. Calls soliciting business have been rude and interrupt our family life. In some cases we have received multiple calls (prior to signing up for do not call) from the same company on the same day. We do not want the Do Not Call ruling to be weakened.